Objectives and activities

Objects of the Charity

To relieve the needs of asylum seekers and refugees by the provision of information, advice and support.

To preserve and protect the physical and mental health of asylum seekers and their dependants and those granted refugee status and their dependents.

To advance the education of the public in general about the issues relating to refugees and those seeking asylum.

To provide facilities for recreation or other leisure time occupation with the object of improving the conditions of life of those persons who have need of such facilities.

To promote human rights (as set out in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and subsequent United Nations conventions and declarations) by all or any of the following means:-

- relieving need among the victims of human rights abuse
- conducting research into human rights issues
- educating the public about human rights
- raising awareness of human rights issues
- promoting public support for human rights
- promoting respect for human rights among individuals and corporations.

Achievements and performance

Bristol Refugee Rights was set up as a voluntary organisation in 2005 to uphold and champion the human rights of asylum seekers and refugees. We provide a place of welcome in Bristol where asylum seekers and refugees can meet and be helped to play a full part in the life of the wider community. We also campaign more widely for the human rights of refugees and asylum seekers. Bristol Refugee Rights aims to deliver a 'user-led' service that addresses the practical and psychological needs as well as the human rights of refugees and asylum seekers by:

- welcoming people into a safe place

Chair's report

The last year has been one of great change and also considerable success for Bristol Refugee Rights (BRR). We were all really sad to see Caroline Beatty retiring from her post. She had been involved with BRR from the start, and had given many years of her expertise, energy and commitment to the organisation; it would not be as successful and member (service user) focussed as it is without her vision and compassion. We are pleased she is happy to continue to support us in different ways. We have been incredibly lucky to have recruited a new Director, Beth Wilson, who started in March and comes to us with a proven track record of working with refugees and asylum seekers and is already showing herself to be a great asset to the organisation.

We are so fortunate to continue to have a dedicated team of paid staff and volunteers who run the organisation so effectively and we would like to thank them all, as they give so much in terms of time their ideas, commitment and skills. We would like to acknowledge all of the support from staff and volunteers who left us this year, but to pay a special tribute to Radha and Moniek who led the AID and Crèche teams so effectively and are both much missed.

The Welcome Centre is now well established at the Malcolm X Community Centre in St Pauls and is seen as a place of safety and solidarity for the hundreds of refugees and asylum seekers who access our services. BRR is becoming better known as a key player in the asylum field; and the event that we organised for Human Rights Day, 'Health Care for All', was a particular success with inspiring speakers talking to a packed audience, who then went to work with the useful resources we produced. Our projects (BRILL, AID, Crèche and VOICE) all continue to provide essential services and to develop in response to members' needs; and we work closely with other partners to provide destitution support, campaigning and awareness raising.

This year saw the tragic murder of Bijan Ebrahimi, a local man from a refugee background who faced discrimination, prejudice and ultimately death. We are constantly reminded of the hostility that some refugees and asylum seekers face, often fuelled by negative media portrayal and a background of discriminatory legislation and lack of services. BRR needs to survive to continue to challenge these issues and to provide the safety and solidarity and to promote action that can make the changes that are so desperately needed.

The next year will be extremely challenging, as we have a number of grants ending and a significant funding gap to address, and so we are pleased to now have the help of a fundraiser, Ruth Soandro-Jones, as part of the team.

Finally, we would also like to thank all our trustees for their unique voluntary contribution to our organisation, and particularly to Malcolm Jenner for his work as Chair last year and current Treasurer. The final word has to be a tribute to our members who are always keen to give as much as they receive, and to support us in every way and are increasingly speaking out on key issues and helping us to run BRR.

TRUSTEES REPORT

Public benefit

The Trustees have complied with their duty under Section 17 of the Charities Act 2011 to have due regard to public benefit guidance published by the Charity Commission.

Trustees' responsibilities in relation to the financial statements

The trustees are responsible for preparing the Annual Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

The trustees are required to prepare financial statements for each financial year in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). The financial statements are required by law to give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of its incoming resources and application of resources of the charity for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements, and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Approved by the trustees and signed on their behalf by:

INDEPENDENT EXAMINERS REPORT

I report on the accounts of the company for the year ended 31st March 2014 which are set out on pages 6 to 13.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The trustees (who are also the directors of the company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act; to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under
- section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006; and
  - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records, comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities

have not been met; or

(2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
