If you have recently been granted Refugee Status we can help with:

- benefit applications,
- applying for housing,
- bank accounts, integration loans

If you are destitute after being refused asylum or immediately after being granted refugee status we can provide some financial support.

We can try to trace your family overseas if you have lost contact.

If you have a 'Family Reunion' visa for a member of your family we may be able to organise and pay for travel to the UK.
