

Information on health

If you have immediate concerns about your health then you can call 111 for free and ask for an interpreter.

Everyone in the UK can register with a GP for free. You can find your local GP by using this website www.nhs.uk/service-search/find-a-gp

The Haven is a specialist health service for refugees and people seeking asylum. You can self-refer by visiting their reception desk at Montpelier Health Centre or by calling 0300 124 6875 and leaving your contact details.

Dental treatment is free for people seeking asylum in the UK however it can be very difficult to find a dentist who is accepting new patients. You can use this website to search www.nhs.uk/service-search/find-a-dentist/

If you need urgent dental advice you can also call 111

